GOT ALL THE NEWS.

It Was a Bit Surprising Until the Source Was Known.

"I had no idea there was such a lot a-going on," chirped fat little Mrs. Bung of Bung's Corners as she opened a puffing rapid fire on Mrs. Tipps, also of the same neighborhood.

"What's it all 'bout, Malissy?" gurgled Mrs. Tipps, her eyes commencing to bulge with excitement. "It's gittin' late, an' I'd a-order be home this minute fixin' supper for my old man; but, lan' sakes, if there's any news!"

"Well, t' begin with, there's a straw ride t'night down to Blueport, that Saray Huggins and Jeff Snuckles is a gittin' up, an' a big pile of young folks is a-goin'." Marthy Spiles has been took with another sick spell, and Sol Coker is a-goin' to haul cordwood tomorrow from Tivton—he's got two loads sold to Buzz Lanny. Mis' Lawler is a-goin' to have a card party nixt Tuesday night, and 'pears like most everybody in town was axed but me.

"The Sposhkin boys killed two skunks on Sprague's lane last night and has got traps set for a fox they see, but couldn't git a shot at. Park Ginnis is a-goin' to build an addition to his henhouse, and Sophie Meyow has had her pet canary ett up by the tomcat.

"Mis' Boskins baked seven loaves of bread this mornin' that riz jist grand, and Dolph Ginnis is sorter courtin' Liz Toppers, and she with her las' husband hardly mor'n cold in the ground. Ain't it awful!"

"Simp Sketers found 10 cents in the gutter near the postoffice, an' Buzz Nutt claims it's hissen and that he lost it there nigh onto three years ago. Nink Garboo skinned his hand in th' door—tryin' to dodge his wife most likely! Malissey Loomis made two gingham aprons a few days back, Lud

Bobbins caught four rats in one trap las' night, and Skid Liddy, he—

"For the lan' sakes, Mis' Bung! Where'd you git all this news?" "Why, Bessie Tubbs, what's got the Central job at our new telephone exchange, just tole me. They started up th' exchange this mornin', you know!" —William Sanford in Judge.

Conscience.

Why should we ever go abroad, even across the way, to ask a neighbor's advice? There is a nearer neighbor within us, incessantly telling us how we should behave. But we wait for the neighbor without to tell us of some false, easier way.—Thoreau.

The Three Washingtons.

In an Ohio town is a colored man whose last name is Washington. Heaven has blessed him with three sons.

When the first son arrived the father named him George Washington. In due season the second son came. Naturally he was christened Booker Washington. When the third man-child was born his parent was at a loss at first for a name for him. Finally, though, he hit on a suitable selection.

The third son, if he lives, will go through life as Spokane Washington.—Saturday Evening Post.

Entirely Too Much Change.

On one of his royal tours King Victor Emmanuel spent the night in a small country town, where the people showed themselves unusually eager in caring for his comfort. So when he had gone to bed he was surprised to be awakened by a servant who wanted to put clean sheets on his bed. However, he waited good naturedly while it was done and wished the servant good night. He had dozed off to sleep when he was roused for the second time by a rap on the door, and the servant reappeared, asking to change the sheets again.

Naturally the king was peeved. He sat up in bed and asked why the change was made so often.

The servant answered reverently. "For onself one changes the sheets every week, for an honored friend every day, but for a king every hour."

Satiety.

"There is no such word," said the philosopher, "as 'don't,' in the logic of things. For to say 'Don't do this!' means that we must do something else. 'Don't cannot evade, doing—It merely diverts it to another form of deed. 'Don't' shapes human action, day after day, just as surely as—"

"Oh, don't talk so much!" cried the philosopher's wife despairingly.—Life.

TIME.

Time is a mocker. To two persons differently situated time has either the wings of an eagle or the feet of a snail. To a man in expectancy a day appears a week and a month a year. To one in possession the summer has scarcely arrived before autumn seems ready to appear.

Big Cattle Ranches.

There are cattle ranches in Argentina with so many buildings that they almost form a town in themselves.

To Suit the Outlook.

"Mandy, are you going to church today?" inquired the judge.
"Yes, sah; Ah am gwine dar now."
"Where do you go?"
"Ter de Church ob de Eberlastia' Expectashuns."
"Never heard of it."
"No, sah. Ah didden low ez how youh did. W'en it was fust put up it were de Church ob Eternal Hope. But w'en de pawson didden git his wages he change de name."—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Tulips.

Tulips come from the Levant. They grow wild in European Turkey. Lady Holland gave them to England in 1804.
